

Editorial Comment on Current Subjects

WHEN TO WRITE TO THE EDITOR
William T. Ellis, in Mountain State Bulletin.

If Christian workers knew the power that resides in a few sensible, sincere lines, written to the editor of the local daily newspaper they read, there would be a widespread consecration of pens.

Every editor, be his paper great or small, is glad to hear candid, reasonable words from readers. He gets fewer letters of suggestion than the public imagines. Therefore these hints.

When a newspaper maintains a broadly patriotic and Christian attitude toward public affairs, and a high moral tone in its columns, write to the Editor in appreciation.

When a newspaper intelligently and fully and proportionately reports religious news and interests, write to the Editor a "Thank you."

When a newspaper publishes regularly a really good religious feature, be it an editorial, a sermon, a Sunday school lesson or other special article, write to the Editor and let him know church folk are appreciative.

When a newspaper ignores religious ideals and religious activities—giving pages to sports and only inches to the churches—write to the Editor and let him know that Christianity is not negligible.

When a newspaper gives no evidence that it recognizes the existence of such a vast special constituency as the Sunday School, write to the Editor and say so.

When you have real news to impart, or definite, constructive suggestions as to articles you would like to see in print, write to the Editor.

And when the newspaper has done a specially praiseworthy bit of work touching upon your field of special interest in news, editorials or features, write to the Editor—and then tell your friends.

In a word, let the newspapers of America know that the Sunday School constituency is wide-awake, responsive, assertive and appreciative.

TODAY IN STATE HISTORY
By E. E. Meredith.

Barbour county was named for Philip Pendleton Barbour and the town of Phillips was named for the son of Philip. Phillips, but mis-spelling and misunderstanding resulted in it being called Phillips, after an ancient city. On April 5, 1843, the county court "ordered that the county seat of this county be known as Phillips" which was in line with the original idea although the clerk got an "e" too many in the spelling of the name. Even now the name of the town is often misspelled and often mispronounced.

First Opera in England.
In 1656 there was produced "The Siege of Rhodes: Made a Representation by the Art of Perspectives in Scenes and the story sung in recitative music," which a writer in the Dictionary of National Biography characterized as "in some respects the most epoch-making play in the language." It was virtually the first opera produced in England.

What People Say and Some Side Remarks

Rev. R. J. Yoak, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, south of Fairmont, made a talk on "The Value of Teachers' Training" at the Fairmont District Sunday School convention yesterday, a subject in which he is deeply interested and on which he is an authority because the Sunday school of that church leads all others in the district in this regard. Rev. Yoak emphasized:

"You can't teach the Bible, unless you know it."

Frank S. White, the president, in commenting upon Rev. Yoak's remarks, said:

"It is impossible for one to teach morality unless he understands moral principles."

Lloyd Yost, the birdman, who spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning in Fairmont, lighting on the knoll of the Peacock farm, hit the river at Rivesville, coming from Hillsboro, Ohio, on his way to Uniontown (for a flight of a day) admits that he was uncertain of his way but declares that was not the real reason for his coming to earth. He explained:

"I was getting mighty cold and that was my main reason for coming down at a place where nature never intended airplanes to drop."

MONONGAH
Ladies' Aid to Meet.
The Ladies' Aid society of the M. P. church will meet at the home of Mrs. Lee N. Satterfield Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Lodge Holds Round Table.
The Pocahontas lodge entertained eighty members at a round table Saturday night. Refreshments were served.

Carnival Arrives.
Five B. & O. cars reached here yesterday bringing the property belonging to Smith's Carnival which will be stationed at Traction park this week.

Automobile Sold.
Howard Shaver, of Worthington, bought the automobile which was sold by the Traction company.

FOR BURNING ECZEMA
Apply Zemo, the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid—Easy to Use—Does Not Stain

Greasy soaps and ointments should not be applied if good clear skin is wanted. From any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for large size, get a bottle of Zemo. When applied as directed it effectively removes eczema, quickly stops itching, and heals skin troubles, also sores, burns, wounds and chafing. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. Zemo is a clean, dependable and inexpensive antiseptic liquid. Try it, as we believe nothing you have ever used is as effective and satisfying.

Goes to Oregon.
Philip Rice, who has been employed here as clerk in the company store for some time, has resigned his position and will leave this week for Oregon.

Notes and Personals.
James Macemire, of Detroit, Mich., is here spending a few days the guest of his friends.

Mrs. Cora Jackson and daughter, Miss Pearl, of Worthington, were here Saturday evening to meet with the Pocahontas lodge.

Carl Meredith, of Meadowbrook, was here to spend Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Meredith.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Groves and Mr. and Mrs. Billy, of Fairmont, were guests at dinner yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Meredith.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Vanke, of Clarksburg, were here Sunday visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cubie, of Bethlehem, were here visiting with friends Sunday.

Charles Meredith has purchased a new automobile.

Messadams Byron Linger and Dr. Linger, of Fairmont, were calling on Mrs. D. Levi last evening.

Soldier Gassed at Verdun
Sleeps the Whole Night
Long, Thanks to Nerv Worth.

Here's a wonderfully interesting story which a hero of the World War, W. E. Wright, told at the Nerv-Worth Drug Store, in Sharon, Pa., a few days ago:

The Nerv-Worth Co. Nerv-Worth was recommended to me by Mr. Moore, demonstrator at McAdam's drug store, and I tried a bottle and I found it to be better than it was recommended. So I came back and bought two more bottles. I am an ex-soldier, and was gassed at Verdun. My chest has been affected since I was discharged. I tried Nerv-Worth and I feel about ten years younger. I will recommend Nerv-Worth to any person. I could not sleep at night before I tried Nerv-Worth, and since I have taken Nerv-Worth, the alarm clock will not awaken me in the morning.

W. E. WRIGHT, 6 1-2 W. St., Sharon, Pa.

Crane's drug store, sells Nerv-Worth in Fairmont. Your dollar back if this famous family tonic does not do for you what it did for W. E. Wright.
